

Next time you're in Los Angeles, sign up for a special tour that turns you into a Hollywood star gazer. The Rolling With the Paparazzi Tour offers you to become one of those bothersome celeb photographers for couple of hours. The tour is led by a real-life paparazzo, Rick Mendoza.

You'll follow, ride, walk and run with Mendoza all over the Los Angeles area to try to spot favorite celebrities. You'll tote your cell phone camera and any other photo gear you choose, just so you can get that great shot. It could be of Paris, Kim or Lindsay sashaying in or out of the latest Sunset Strip club or fancy Beverly Hills hairdresser's shop.

The charge is $150 per person, and for more information, go to www.walkjogrun.net
