

While visiting Las Vegas, take a day away from the casinos, spas, pools, shows and buffets to enjoy a visit to one of Mother Nature's most spectacular creations.

There are many travel organizations in town that specialize in Grand Canyon trips by chopper, airplane and bus. For a typical six to 12-hour trip, as well as overnight camping, the cost starts from about $100 per person, depending on the various schedules and extras. For example, All Las Vegas Tours currently advertises a Grand Canyon West Rim bus trip at $109.99. It includes pick-up at your hotel, air-conditioned bus, lunch, visits to Hoover Dam, Joshua Tree National Forest and the Hualapai Indian Nation at the Canyon.

Check online, with your hometown travel agent or your Las Vegas hotel staff for all local trip choices. For more on this example and others, go to www.alllasvegastours.com