

The picturesque Tennessee town is famous for its Southern-themed music and landmarks. They include the State Capital building, Jack Daniels Distillery and copy of the Parthenon in Centennial Park.

If visiting Nashville on the first Saturday of any month, you can also enjoy its art treasures. Experience great music, original art and much more along the city's Fifth Avenue of the Arts. Among other benefits is free wine and local food samples as you wander the art galleries and colorful street displays. www.nashvilledowntown.com/play/first-saturday-art-crawl