

Scheduled for Friday through Sunday, September 23-25, The Galway International Oyster Festival marks the start of the Irish oyster season. The celebrations include parades, concerts, contests, kids' events and formal dance.

The event's highlights will be chefs' demonstrations and the traditional shucking and tasting of the delicious shelled delicacies. For more info, www.galwayoysterfest.com