

Friendly dogs roam as participants in Pets Unstressing Passengers in one of the world's busiest terminals (LAX). Nearly 100 local volunteers regularly bring their friendly dogs to roam the huge airport to help people deal with the typical anxiety, delays and other troubles. There's nothing like a happy tail wag and smiling canine face to ease the stress.