

Is your old infantry division getting together in 2009? Are all the Navy guys from your ship gathering in Vegas? Have you been invited to a reunion of Army nurses who served in France during WWII? Will your Marine fighter squadron mates who fought in 'Nam in the 1960's be gathering in Manhattan in the near future?

Do we have to remind you that you're not getting any younger? Make a special effort to attend the next reunion, where you can renew old friendships and relive some shared memories of your service times together.