

The ten-centuries-old cathedral chapel has been the site of royal weddings, funerals, coronations and other official British events. It is also the last resting place of famed kings, queens, authors, composers, artists and military leaders. Your travel4seniors.com editor captured the magnificent chapel scene from high above in the choir loft.