

According to Town & Country, for a mere $725 a night, you can stay and sleep where the young Donald once romped. It's not a yuuuge house, but all comfy and in a quiet neighborhood. Despite rumors, there's no underground shelter to protect the boy Donald in the early 1950s in case of a foreign atomic attack