

The historic Fairmont welcomes dogs, cats and other pet guests. For a $75 fee, they'll enjoy mini-beds, water bowls, toys, tasty meals and other comforts.

During your visit, you and your pet may meet (but not eat) Lilou, a therapy pig who often stays at the hotel for special events. And for exercise, you and your four-footed friend can hike through a great city's steep streets, parks, and maybe hop on a cable car ride.
