

In planning your warm season travels, consider the upcoming Figaro celebrations in the flamboyant Andalucía capital. Parks, lawns, windows, people and everything else are bathed in orange blossom and jasmine colors and scents.

During Semana Santa (Holy Week), from April 14 to 20, the city is busy with colorful images, music and parades. Following is the annual Feria de Abril, with flamboyant flamenco dancing on the nights of May 4 to 11. For more info, go to andalucia.com/cities/seville/events.htm
