

Four Seasons Hotel Alexandria at San Stefano recaptures the glamour of Egypt's coastal resort with its seafront tower in the centre of the city's celebrated Corniche. With a distinctive European flair, the 118-room Hotel adds 21st century elegance to Alexandria's renowned Mediterranean ambience, setting new standards for beach-side living in the summer capital of the Middle East.

Built on the site of the historic San Stefano Hotel, the Hotel forms an integral part of the city's new Grand Plaza complex in the elite San Stefano district. The fourth Four Seasons property in Egypt and the ninth to open in the Middle East, the Hotel's extensive facilities include, terraced pool rooms and suites; décor inspired by ocean and blue skies; nine dining experiences ranging from Lebanese fine-dining to an Italian street café; a European Spa and Mediterranean views from almost every window.

Alexandria is the second largest city in Egypt – and the most culturally diverse – with a coastline that stretches over 30km. Palm-lined boulevards, beautiful gardens and wide-ranging historical sites combined with a thriving café culture and convivial inhabitants to give the city a bohemian air. Alexandria's proximity to Cairo – only 225 km – provides an ideal opportunity for a twin-centre stay at Four Seasons Hotel Cairo at Nile Plaza or Four Seasons Hotel Cairo at The First Residence.
