

A great tip we found today on the AARP website. The article discusses the different options for shipping your luggage, instead of lugging it with you. Read more HERE. The idea is, especially with airlines charging a bag fee, is to pack and ship your bags via FEDEX or UPS from your home to your hotel. Both companies will pick up at your house, offer excellent tracking, and are probably more reliable than the airlines.