

The cyber world is getting more complicated for we seniors every day, but this innovation is something we could welcome with open arms and closed suitcases.

For $100, you can put this GPS Tracker into your checked luggage, and you'll always know exactly where it is. Of course, if you deplane in Hong Kong just as your bags arrive in Istanbul, you still have a slight problem. trackimo.co.za