

One way costs less than $50, about half of a ticket for a flight with the same destinations. There's no waiting in the airport, and the train route is conveniently downtown to downtown. The seating is more comfortable, with picturesque views from the windows. Get up, walk around and enjoy drinks and food.