

Changi Airport in Singapore is considered one of the world's most beautiful, and an interesting place to wander. However, if you must be there for more than six hours, consider visiting the sparkling city.

The no-cost tour includes city sights, such as Chinatown, Little India, Marina Bay Financial Center and the Singapore Flyer Ferris Wheel. When your expected or unexpected schedule may require that long airport waiting time for connecting flights, check out Singapore tour details on changairport.com