

Your travel4seniors.com caught this scene with my daily roaming camera. After a munchy snack shop stop, it's time for the riders to hit the famed Highway 66 as it winds thru West Hollywood, California, on it's way to the Pacific Ocean beaches just a dozen miles away.