

A popular destination for tourists, kids and locals since 1934, it's also called The Grove. There are dozens of specialty food shops, meat markets, restaurants and souvenir stands.

With Hollywood studios just up the street, the market boasts many stars and would-be stars who worked there as youngsters before they became famous. They include Shirley Temple, Marilyn Monroe (Miss Cheesecake 1953), Clint Eastwood and Ava Gardner. Is it possible that these three will someday grow up to become Hollywood stars?
